

Re-entry Navigation Case Plan: Dillon Johnson

1. Executive Summary & Clinical Assessment

- Participant Name: Dillon Johnson
- Location: Charleston, SC
- Risk Profile: High Overall Risk
- Primary Criminogenic Domains: 1. Education/Employment | 2. Alcohol/Drug Problem | 3. Procriminal Attitude/Orientation
- Current Stability Status: At Risk (No driver's license, recent substance use history, high emotional volatility around workplace authority).

2. Core Behavioral Triggers & Facilitation Strategy (Turn90 Standards)

- Triggers: Perceived disrespect, feeling ignored, or administrative delays.
- Escalation Pattern: 'Cut Off' impulsive thinking leading to verbal outbursts, property destruction, and fleeing.
- Facilitation Guidance:
 - Modeling Neutrality (Standard 1.5): Staff must remain calm and neutral when Dillon expresses frustration or anti-social views. Reflect statements neutrally without debate.
 - Managing Buy-In (Standard 3.2): Explicitly link job retention and self-regulation to his primary goals: steady paychecks, independence, and staying off probation supervision.

3. Dynamic Targeted Action Items

1. Workplace Stabilization & CBT Skill-Building: Engage in daily CBT exercises focused on anger de-escalation, impulse control, and managing supervisor feedback.
2. Substance Recovery Support: Link with outpatient relapse counseling to address marijuana/edible triggers.
3. Transportation Mapping: Build dedicated transit routes using CARTA bus lines to ensure 100% on-time job attendance.

4. Supervision & Re-entry Accountability Roadmap

- Weekly Goal: Maintain full attendance in Turn90 programming and complete weekly check-ins with Probation Officer without breach.
- 30-Day Milestone: Secure first-shift fair-chance employment along bus line; establish daily medication compliance for Hydroxyzine.
- 90-Day Milestone: Maintain employment retention, demonstrate emotional de-escalation skills on site, and begin driver's license reinstatement plan.
