Uh yes sir.
What about social security card? Yes, sir.
Okay. Um, how many convictions did you have as a juvenile?
Uh, I first char 17.
Okay.
So, it's not considered juvenile. They charge me as adult.
Okay. Gotcha. But, but you did catch under 18. Gotcha. What was that charged for?
Okay. How many uh adult convictions have you had?
Uh, like nine. Okay. Your last um conviction, how many charges were there?
Just one.
Okay. What was that?
Uh uh 2017 common law robbery.
Common law. Okay. You've been incarcerated as result of a conviction. Um were you ever punished for institutional misconduct?
No.
No. Okay. Any behavioral reports while you're in prison?
No.
Okay. You ever had your probation or parole suspended or revoked while you're under supervision?
What does that mean?
Like um you violated probation, parole?
I had um like I didn't never get sent to jail. I violated because I didn't pay him all the way and then they ended up taking me to court and they just basically like dropped my restitution amount down because I was inadequate to pay that much.
Okay.
I didn't have a job. I was young. I was basically home. So
Okay.
They end up just letting me pay a little bit at a time and giving me paying a certain amount that just take me off.
Gotcha. Um, so you never had any charges laid upon you while you were under supervision?
Okay, good. See, currently unemployed. What's the longest period of time you've been unemployed?
